Chapter 1 by Feyre Archeron

The moment you realize that you've lost everything, is the moment when your new beginning comes to realize.

"Do you think it's stable enough to stay?" Sarah asked while we were still searching for safe storm shelter. "The storms about to hit...." "We need to settle in." Tim said. We were walking in when lightning struck the cabin. The whole cabin shook! It creaked and started to crumble!!! "Run!!!" Tim yelled as he grabbed me and threw Sarah out of the cabin, just before a broken log came down. It was going to hit Sarah but Tim pushed Sarah out of the way, so she wouldn't get hurt. But there's the other problem Tim got hurt!!! "TIM!!" Sarah yelled with so much fright, Sarah couldn't hear her own heartbeat!!

"Go!!"....."I'll be fine, don't worry about me, Go get help!!!!!!!" Tim yelled...

Sarah was so frightened she ran and called for help and she didn't even know she was crying until she busted in to the police station. "I'm in a cabin just down the street, and my husbands stuck and hurt badly I need help right away!!!!!!!" Sarah yelled! They rushed out the door dragging me along!

They turned on the sirens as soon as we got in the car and speed down the road until Sarah yelled "Turn left!!!" The car took a drifted left. The whole car skidded across the sharp turn. The tires screeched to a hilt In front of the cabin we could here cries for help. We found Tim under pile of broken logs and broken pillars. They rushed to get him free from all the brush. They finally got him free and the cops called for an ambulance as soon as the ambulance got there they checked both of us out and found out we were all right with cuts and bruises and Tim walked away with a fractured arm and a few cuts and bruises.
